

Hello, my name is Dafne Almazán Anaya, I am eighteen years old, and I have been a disciple of Christ for four years. Thanks to God, I was born in a Christian family that has always been there for me. Because of their support, I was able to complete my primary education in just one year, this means that by the time I was seven years old, I had entered into high school. When I was ten years old, I started my Psychology degree at ITESM (Monterrey Institute of Technology and Higher Studies) which I ended at the age of 13, this made me the youngest psychologist in the world. Later I started a master's degree in Education at ITESM, from which I graduated at age 16, then I started a doctorate in Education at Liberty University. Later, I was admitted to Harvard last year to a master's in Mathematics Education.

However, none of this could have been possible if God had not been with me. I know that being gifted was a gift from God and my family whom I love very much.

When I was 14 years old I realized that despite having accomplished so many things, like having a unique intelligence, having made an impact on the world and having a family that supported me in everything, I was missing something. I felt a deep hollowness in my heart that only Jesus could fill in.

In 2016, I decided to give my entire life to Christ, and it was at that moment when I finally felt a true freedom and happiness. I got baptized May 21st and understood that absolutely nothing could fill me, like living as a disciple. Now I understand that I achieved all my goals only because of the grace and blessings of God. The only thing that I can do is be grateful and dedicate my life to glorifying him in whatever I do and make the most of the opportunities he has given me.

Now I have something I never imagined: a life full of joy and freedom thanks to the sacrifice Jesus made. Last year I was added to the Mexico Church Of Christ, in the Coyoacán region. Thanks to that, I discovered one of God's purposes for me: the worship ministry. I cannot put into words how grateful I am with Christ for giving me this talent in music. I have always liked music, but now I get to use my talent to glorify and worship Jesus' beautiful name. I decided to study in a short time a bachelor's degree in Music to be able to worship our King with excellence.

I always try to give my best to God, I choose to live my life according to God's will, and use my talents to exalt HIS Name, because HE is EVERYTHING. A scripture that has helped me since I chose to believe and be faithful to him is: 1 Timothy 4:12 NIV

Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity.

All that I want is to fulfill the purpose God has for me and worship him everyday of my life with all of me.
